"In the absence of such evidence, this Court has to hold that neither lending of money to first accused nor the collection of interest from him are actually borne out by the record. Therefore, this Court has to hold that the enquiry report is vitiated by serious lapses/lacunae. The imposition of the penalty is not correct in the light of the available evidence. The oral and documentary evidence introduced do not support the case of the State against the petitioner. In the circumstances, the imposition of any penalty is incorrect and contrary to law. The two judgments of the Honble Supreme Court fully apply to the facts of this case.

Hence, the writ petition is therefore allowed. The punishment imposed against the petitioner vide G.O.Rt.No.674, dated. 25.0.8.2020 is hereby set aside. No order as to costs."
